Question of granting a higher starting salary to the Amildars when they are promoted as Asst. Collrs.

Letter No C 5-311/35-36 dt 14.7.36 from the Rev Commr

Encloses refce to G.O. dt 2.1.29 directing that when an A.S.D. who has reached the maximum of the grade is promoted as Supdg Surveyor of Police, he should be given a starting pay of Rs 300 and recommends, for reasons stated, that Amildars who have reached the maximum or may be reached the same may be permitted to draw Rs 290 + 10 from the date of their appointment as Asst Commrs and also forwards a representation received in the matter from Mr. B. Singaravelu Deo, Asst Commr, in the matter

1) CS file 126 of 28; H 2 containing his G.O. of 2nd January 1929 is enclosed herewith.

2) Said refce is quoted in page 2 of the Memorandum now by the Second Member of Council (Rao Bahadur Balasundaram Ayer) wherein it is explained that the case of an Amildar or a similar Officer of the Rev Dept promoted as Asst Commr & placed in charge of a Taluk

3) Under a ~~Special~~ G.O. issued in 1929, officers of the non-Civil Service cadre in the Police Dept. promoted to the grade of Superintendent of Police are shown a special concession in respect of their starting pay in the grade of Superintendent. Reference is invited to Mr. C.S. Balasundaram Iyer's Tenal Note

d. 28.11.1928 in which the reasons for this special treatment are set forth. The reasons adduced are:—

(i) Maximum pay of A.S.P. is Rs 250 same as minimum pay of D.S.P.

(ii) Charge of D.S.P. much more responsible than that of A.S.P. & involves the Officer in an additional expre as he has to equip himself for rapid journeys all over the District and it is desirable to give a higher starting pay so as not to cause undue hardship.—

(iii) The case of an Amildar or Similar Off of the Rev Dept. ~~posted~~ promoted as Asst Comr & placed in charge of a Try or Sub Div differs in the above respect from that of an A.S.P. promoted as D.S.P.

The concession shown is that— "When an A.S.P. who has reached or nearly reached the maximum pay of that grade is promoted as Supdt of Police, he should be given a starting pay of Rs 300" (since reduced to Rs 250 in view of revision of grades of pay of D.S.P's).

4) The Revenue Commr recommends that the same concession in the case of Amildars promoted as Asst Comrs, as some of them

NOTE—Contn. Sheet.

Sd have drawn Rs 250 as Amildars for a number of years and are due to retire shortly, nd cannot hope to draw any increment in the rade of Asst. Comr or stand a chance of confirmation efore retirement. A representation from Mr. B. Suryanarayana Rao, who had been drawing Rs 250/- as Amildar from 1.3.32 d was appointed to act as Asst. Comr from 1.2.1936 (and who is due to retire from 30.5.1937), has also been sent up.

5). The following Circumstances are submitted in this Connection :—

(i) Maximum pay of an Amildar is the same as that of an A.S.P. (Rs 250)

(ii) Minimum pay (d the grade) of a non Civil Service D.S.P. is the same as that of an Asst. Comr. (250 - 40/2 - 450)

(iii) An A.S.P. is in charge of a few taluks, and on promotion will have charge of whole Dt, and will have to equip himself accordingly

(iv) An Amildar has charge of one Taluk and on promotion as Asst. Comr will have charge of a few taluks, if posted as S.D.O. But he is also liable to be posted to charge of post covering a District e.g District Excise Offr District Supdt of Police (C.S.), Asst Supdt of Survey, If posted to a Treasury he may not be required to tour at all

7) I consider that there is great force in the recommendation made by the Revenue. In the case of assistant Supdts of Police promoted to the grade of Supdts, the Starting pay is fixed at Rs 290 when an A.S.P has reached or nearly reached the maximum. The reason for this is that a D.S.P has a wider Jurisdiction and has to equip himself suitably and thus incur additional Expre. In the case of amildars promoted as Assistant Comrs, as pointed out in the Office note, there is the likelihood of some of them being posted to Departments where their Jurisdiction may extend over a whole Distt. In the Madras Pres, promotees from the grade of Thasildars are given a Starting pay of Rs 300. Some relief seems necessary in the case of Senior amildars who have reached the maximum Salary of their appointments and who are promoted to the grade of assistant Comrs. I would submit that where an amildar has drawn after having drawn the maximum of Rs 250/- for at least 2 years in the Amildari Service is promoted as asstt. Commr, he may be given Rs 290. In some cases it so happens that promotions in his branch where a Senior amildar promoted as asstt. Commr has to retire before he has earned the next increment. The increase in starting salary may be limited to one increment irrespective of the period during which an amildar has drawn Rs 250/- beyond the five years minimum mentioned above. Cases of this kind are not likely to be many.

8) The proposal is that Amildars who have reached the maximum or nearly reached the same may be permitted to draw Rs 290/- from the date of their appointment as Acting Assistant Commissioners on the ground that the maximum pay of an Amildar, viz., Rs 250/- is the same as the minimum pay of an Assistant Commissioner and that in the case of an Assistant Superintendent of Police on Rs 250/- promoted as a District Superintendent of Police, he is started on a pay of Rs 290/- in the grade Rs 250-40/2-450.

As regards the analogy of ~~D.S.P.s~~ Dist. Superintendents of Police, reference is invited to the Second Member's (late Mr. C.S. Balasundaram Iyer's) minute dated 31st October 1928 in C.B. file 126-28 and 2 explaining clearly how the promotion of an A.S.P. to the charge of a D.S.P.'s office is different from that of an Amildar's promotion to an Assistant Commissioner's charge. The same conditions as existed then exist now also in these services and there is no reason to consider the position of Assistant Commissioners differently now. In fact, the above view is upheld recently by the First Member in his minute dated 17th June 1936 in Pol. File No: 131-35-1 to 6 (flag L).

The proposal itself is opposed to the rules in M.S.R. and would result in much extra cost if sanctioned. If the argument that an advance increment is to be given on the ground that the maximum of the lower grade is the same as the minimum pay of the higher grade, is accepted it has to be stated that there are several such posts in other departments and the extension of the concession as proposed to all such appointments would mean heavy extra cost all round. The proposal is thus not financially acceptable.

I would also urge the withdrawing of the special concession shown in the Police Department on the ground of its being quoted as a precedent and also on the ground of there really being no necessity for such a special concession. The scale of pay of a D.S.P., viz., Rs 250-40/2-450 is to be regarded as a liberal one and there should be no justification for giving any one a higher initial pay in the grade.

The analogy of the

14) Asst Supts of Police promoted by the D S P's does not hold good in all other cases. In his final note of 28-11-28, Mr Balasundaram Iyer referred to this very instance & shows how it was different from the case of A S P's. These reasons are valid even now & I see no reason to modify it. As stated by the Fl Sec., there are similar appts in several other depts & the precedent of A S P's appts as D S P cannot be extended.

CHIEF SECRETARY 15 JULY 1936

SIR,

I have the honour to state that Government in their order No. 3093-4-C.B. 126-28-1 dated 2-1-1929 have directed that when an Assistant Superintendent of Police who has reached or nearly reached the maximum of that grade is promoted as Superintendent of Police, he should be given a starting pay of Rs 300/-. I am of opinion that this concession should be extended in the case of Amildars promoted as Assistant Commissioners for the following reasons:-

Suice fixed to 290 in view of the revision of the grades of Rs upto

2. Recently many senior Amildars on Rs 250/- have been promoted as Assistant Commissioners, but they get the same pay i.e., Rs 250/- as acting Assistant Commissioners and the promotion does not give them any increase of pay. Some of the Amildars so promoted have drawn Rs 250/- as Amildars for a number of years and as several of them are due to retire they cannot hope to draw any increment in the grade of Assistant Commissioners, much less stand a chance of confirmation before their retirement. As their cases are hard I think that the concession given to Assistant Superintendents of Police in the above said Government Order is deserved by Amildars appointed to act as Assistant Commissioners. I recommend therefore that Amildars who have reached the miximum or nearly reached the same may be permitted to draw Rs 290/- + 10/- from the date of their appointment as acting Assistant Commissioners as their responsibilities are greater.

3. I also enclose herein a representation received in the matter from Mr. B. Suryanarayana Rao, acting Assistant Commissioner.

The Deputy Commissioner,

Sir,

While I feel grateful for the promotion given to me, I beg leave to represent that this promotion does not give me any increase to my pay or pension as I have hardly two years of service before my superannuation. I had been drawing Rs 250/- as an Amildar for the last ~~4~~ 4 years i.e. from 1-3-1932. I beg that in consideration of my long service and good work, especially in Municipal and Village Reconstruction Departments, I may be given ~~4~~ 2 increments and that I may be permitted to draw the same viz., Rs 250/- plus Rs 80/- = Rs 330/- from the date of my appointment i.e. 1-2-36 so as to enable me to draw higher emoluments and a slightly higher pension also. In this connection, I beg leave to invite reference to Government Order No. 3093-4 C.B. 126-28-1 dated 2-1-1929 which authorised Assistant Police Superintendents who have been drawing Rs 250/- to draw higher salary when they are promoted as District Police Superintendents. I beg the same concession may graciously be extended to me who has been drawing Rs 250/- for the past 4 years as an Amildar before being promoted as an Assistant Commissioner.

For this act of generosity, I will be ever grateful.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,
